CASE NO. 2:13-CV-9052-MMM (Ex)

CONSENT JUDGMENT

PRELIMINARY FACTS

1
2 1. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this
3 action pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1121 and 28 U.S.C. §§1331 and 1338.

4 2. Plaintiff Win-It-Too, Inc. (hereinafter “Plaintiff” or “WIT”) filed its
5 Complaint in this action on December 6, 2013. The Complaint alleges that Plaintiff
6 does business as Global Beer Network® and that Plaintiff owns the federally
7 registered trademark LIVING BEER® in connection with beer and related goods,
8 U.S. Reg. No. 3,664,912, issued August 4, 2009 (“’912 Registration”). Plaintiff
9 further alleges it has been using the trademark LIVING BEER in interstate commerce
10 since at least as early as June 1997, in connection with beer and related goods.

11 3. The Complaint alleges that sometime in 2013, Defendant Firestone
12 Walker LLC (“Defendant” or “Firestone Walker”) began using the trademark “WE 13 ARE LIVING BEER” in connection with the advertisement and offering for sale of 14 beer and related goods. In its Complaint, Plaintiff asserts three claims for relief
15 against Defendant arising from Defendant’s use of a “WE ARE LIVING BEER”
16 mark: (1) Infringement of Plaintiff’s federally registered trademark LIVING
17 BEER®, under 15 U.S.C. § 1114; (2) Federal Unfair Competition, under 15 U.S.C. §
18 1125(a); and (3) Unfair Competition under the common law. Defendant filed an 19 Answer to the Complaint on February 4, 2014. Its Answer is combined with a 20 Counterclaim [Docket #16]. The Counterclaim seeks cancellation of the ‘912
21 Registration, a declaration that Plaintiff does not own rights in its LIVING BEER
22 trademark, and related relief. On February 25, 2014, Plaintiff filed its Answer to the 23 Counterclaim [Docket #18].

24 4. Following settlement conferences with Magistrate Judge Carla M.
25 Woehrle conducted on July 18, 2014 and October 8, 2014, and a “mediator’s
26 proposal” by Judge Woehrle, the parties have agreed to settle their disputes by way of 27

1 a confidential settlement agreement. One of the terms of that agreement is the
2 Consent Judgment set forth herein.

3
4 ORDER AND FINAL JUDGMENT

5 Pursuant to the stipulation filed by the parties, it is hereby ordered, adjudged
6 and decreed that the Court's prior orders terminating this case (upon notice of 7 settlement, subject to re-opening) are set aside; final judgment is hereby entered for 8 Plaintiff on its Complaint; and the Counterclaim is dismissed with prejudice. The 9 terms of final judgment consented to by the parties, and entered by the Court, are the 10 following:
11

12 1. Defendant Firestone Walker, and its officers, agents, servants,
13 employees, attorneys, and other persons in active concert or participation with 14 anyone described in this provision, shall cease all use of a "WE ARE LIVING
15 BEER" mark, brand, slogan and name in any way, including on products, labels, beer
16 caps, beer bottles and cans, packaging, containers, tap handles, banners, trade show
17 displays, delivery and sales vehicles, merchandise, advertising and promotional 18 materials, including electronic and digital uses such as websites. In addition,
19 Defendant Firestone Walker and those other persons listed above shall not adopt,
20 make use of, or seek to register a trademark, brand or trade name in commerce in any 21 way, including on products, labels, beer caps, beer bottles and cans, packaging,
22 containers, tap handles, banners, trade show displays, delivery and sales vehicles,
23 merchandise, advertising and promotional materials, including electronic and digital
24 uses such as websites, whose formative or component terms include the term
25 "LIVING BEER" (or any foreign equivalent) or which otherwise in any respect is 26 likely to cause confusion with Plaintiff's "LIVING BEER" trademark.
27

1 2. Nothing in this Order shall require Firestone Walker to recall any
2 product that was, prior to October 8, 2014, already distributed to persons or entities
3 who are independent and not under the control of Firestone Walker.

4 3. Defendant Firestone Walker's Counterclaim is hereby be dismissed in its
5 entirety, with prejudice.

6 4. This Court retains jurisdiction for purposes of enforcing this Consent
7 Judgment. The Court's reservation of jurisdiction includes the power to amend and 8 enlarge this Judgment in the event Defendant Firestone Walker fails to comply with 9 any monetary or trademark term of the settlement agreement upon which the parties'
10 stipulation for this Consent Judgment is based.

11 5. Final Judgment upon consent of the parties is hereby entered in the form
12 stated above. No appeal shall be taken by the parties to this Consent Judgment.
